Self-Directed Retirement Plan Services

H. Quincy Long is President of Entrust Retirement Services, Inc., a self-directed IRA third party administrator, with offices in Houston and San Antonio, Texas. H. Quincy Long has been a licensed Texas attorney since 1991 who specializes in real estate, and has been a fee attorney for American Title Company. He has sat on the board of directors of the Realty Investment Club of Houston (RICH), the second largest real estate club in the country. Quincy received his Doctor of Jurisprudence in 1990 from the University of Houston. He received his Master of Laws, also from the University of Houston, 1997. Quincy also holds the title of CISP (Certified IRA Service Professional).

Quincy is also the author of numerous articles on self-directed IRAs and other real estate related topics, and co-author of the book Real Estate Investment Using Self-Directed IRAs and Other Retirement Plans by Dyches Boddiford and George Yeiter, CPA.

Widely known for his enthusiasm, attention to detail, and knowledge of the Self-Directed retirement industry he is one of the most sought after key note speakers in the nation. Mr. Long frequently lectures on a wide variety of topics relating to IRAs and real estate, including all aspects of self-directed retirement plans, unrelated business income tax, land trusts, mortgage and tax foreclosures, tax lien loans, real estate options, subject to transactions, title company issues, probate, 1031 exchanges, and continuing education courses for real estate professionals, certified public accountants, and certified financial planners.

Most importantly, Mr. Long believes in what he says and practices what he teaches. As an active investor inside and outside of his retirement plans, Mr. Long has an intimate understanding of the needs of his customers.
